Welcome Back Message from Mrs Chadwick:

We would like to welcome back all our staff and children including our new Reception and Nursery children and also the children who joined us in Y3 and Y5.

The children have returned to school enthusiastic, happy and eager to learn with lots of stories of their summer break. We have had a very busy first week back but the children have settled quickly and are all enjoying their new year groups. They look very smart in their uniforms, thank you for your assistance. Information regarding events, parent evening options will be circulated over the next few weeks.

Important Information Sheets

Year groups 1 to 6 will bring home an A5 flyer tonight with information about their class, which includes: PE day, homework/spellings, reading etc. Please keep this safe to use for reference. These will also be available to view on the school website under 'Information for parents/carers'.

PE Days

PE lessons will start next week. Please ensure children come to school in their PE uniform on their allocated day (earrings must be removed before school)

Monday	Reception
Tuesday	Nursery
Wednesday	Y3 and Y4
Thursday	Y2 and Y5
Friday	Y1 and Y6
